BOOK SYNOPSIS

What Has Stolen Your Joy? Hundreds of self-help books have been published about women finding joy, so what makes this one special? Well, maybe you are trying a self-help book for the first time or maybe you have read many and have tried to work on "self-help" before and failed. Whatever the case, you are looking for results, otherwise you'll probably come away disappointed and disillusioned yet once again. What you need is a system. In Faith Full Retirement, professional speaker and author Jan Elliott demonstrates a step by step system women can use to create joy in her later years. You will learn this proven system for finding your new identity, discovering your passion and purpose sprinkled with the power of prayer and divine guidance. You will also discover how to avoid the common mistakes that other women make or that they don't practice often enough to truly find out what it means to live a joyful life. We have all heard it all before: "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." "Where there's a will, there's a way." "When life hands you lemons, make lemonade." But anyone who has ever tried to make a big life change knows it can be a bit more complicated- and frightening- than that. How do you get up the nerve and confidence to actually take the leap and start fulfilling your life's passion and purpose? Everything you need, including exercises, free downloaded quizzes, user-friendly links, tips, strategies and motivational quotes are all in this book. You will soon be on your way to mastering the question, what has stolen my joy? In 2016 baby boomer women will be retiring at lightning speed. This is the awakening of a generation to the opportunities that lie ahead. Research has shown that women in their fifties and sixties are more vital now than they were only ten years ago. They're saying, "I'm game, I'm up for it, I want to do more." But where is my joy? After two weeks of no alarm clocks, leisurely sipping your morning coffee, getting dressed by noon, the transition sets in. How will I spend my days? How will I find my joy in retirement? Or maybe you were different. You had your later years all planned out. Everything. Even down to all the minor details. You would travel. Spend time with your husband who also just happened to be your best friend. Visit grandchildren. Catch up with old friends. But then life takes a turn and all the plans had to be put on the back burner. And again where is my joy in retirement? Perhaps you didn't save enough money, maybe you've let go of your health or appearance, or quite possibly, you're weighed down by clutter, grief or anger that no longer serves you. All contributing to far less joy in retirement. Using this book, you will quickly master the answer to that difficult question. What has stolen my joy? Take this journey with Jan as she shares her retirement years ups and downs, laughter and tears as she finally finds answers to finding joy again in Faith Full Retirement. Faith Full Retirement guides and encourages you to explore your dreams, look at your options and take charge of your life. It's never too late to experience the joyful, faith-filled life you were meant to live. With this book you'll have all the tools you need to make your later years the best ones yet - finding your joy in retirement. Click on the "Look Inside" to find out more. Read on Kindle for free!
